Ronald Murray August 26, 1955 — November 17, 1971

We fade and die like flowers that grow in beauty,
Like tender grass that soon will disappear;
But evermore the Love of God is changeless,
Still shown to those who look to Him in fear.

DEDICATION

Dedication is a big word. It includes such things as patience, involvement, interest, and love. We want to dedicate our yearbook to a person who has shown to us these qualities. A person who has shown concern for each of us as individuals, someone who has respected each of us for what we are. A person who could laugh at our jokes, but yet could help us buckle down and work. A person who showed deep dedication to students and hard work, but an even greater dedication to God. For friendship, guidance, help, but most of all dedication, we give this yearbook to you, Mr. VandenHoek.

There are different kinds of gifts
There are different ways of serving Remember this . . .

who plants many seeds will have a large crop. Each one of us then should give, not with regret or out of a sense of duty, for God loves the one who gives gladly. Our love should not be just words and talk. It must be true love which shows itself in action . . .

... by their fruits you shall know them.

GUIDANCE

The Guidance Office -

- a place we could go when we had questions, or needed advice and counseling.
- a place where we looked through college catalogs and wondered about our futures.
- a place where we thought of and talked about our goals, ambitions, dreams, and purposes.
- a place where we knew there would be someone who would listen to us.
- a place we could rely on for Christian guidance.

LADIES

Nineteen seventy two marks the 25th year of service by our ladies auxiliary. Mothers and other interested women have offered their time to raise money for janitorial and office timesavers, the new gym floor, Fine Arts, the remodeling of the auditorium, and other school projects. Through the sale of barbecues, catered dinners, and hostess suppers, Illiana and its students have profited for many years.

ART

WILLIAM WESTERHOF

The Art course at Illiana has become more and more popular. Taught by Mr. Westerhof, the students express themselves uniquely through their art work. An opportunity is given for the school's artists to display their work in the library.

As amateur scientists, we were fascinated and perplexed by microscopes, cells, atoms, laws, and theories. Through lab experimentation we rediscovered and proved basic laws and formulas, and tried to comprehend the complexities and intricacies of the world and its Creator.

War, motives, frames of reference, government. We struggled to understand the emergence of world powers, the motives for war, the effects of society on man. Our studies of the past were keys to our understanding of the world today. We learned to understand ourselves and our relations to others.

"Who has the answer to number 24?"

Square roots, the ASA theorem, parabolas, and sine waves are part of the maze of math. We scratched our heads and bit our pencils in discouragement over seemingly unsolvable problems. Our experiences in math trained our minds to think logically.

The Scarlet Letter, Syntax, Macbeth, and descriptive paragraphs stimulated our minds and challenged us to learn the art of expressing ourselves. We tried to parallel experiences learned through stories and poetry to our own experiences. The study of English writing and literature gave us an appreciation of our language.

Christ. Love. Salvation. His Church. Who is God? Who am I? These are only a few of the questions we grappled with in Bible. We learned to search the Word of God for answers. Again and again, we were impressed by the infinite power and majesty of God the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

WILMA SCHURINGA

Spanish I, II, III

"Wo ist Monika?" and "Ole Isabel! Como estas?" introduced us to our studies in foreign languages. In German and Spanish we played the guessing game "der, die, oder das?" and "el, la, los, o las?" Our studies in foreign languages were not merely a memorization of words and rules — we became acquainted with traditions and customs of different cultures.

GRADUATION '72

Lord, you have said, I AM THE WAY —
not that we shall never be confused.
You have said, I AM THE TRUTH —
not that we shall have all the answers.
And, I AM THE LIFE — not that we shall never die.

Teach me to know you here on earth —
In its tangled maze of pathways,
to know you as THE WAY;
In its unanswerable mysteries,
to know you as THE TRUTH,
In the face of suffering and death
to know you as THE LIFE.

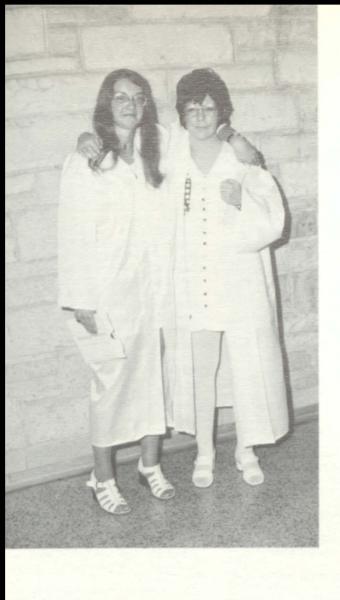

Thank-you, Lord, for not offering us a method, saying, THIS IS THE WAY.

Thank-you for not granting us a set of propositions, saying THIS IS THE TRUTH.

Thank-you for not delivering us from being human, saying THIS IS THE LIFE.

Thank you, Lord, for saying instead, I AM, and thus giving us yourself.

- Elizabeth Elliot
